

THE DELANEYS OF ST. COLUMBAN (O DUBHSLAINTE)

BY

KEN NEIL

FIRST GENERATION

JOHN DELANEY my gr gr gr grandfather, was born in the parish of Dunkerrin, Ireland about 1794. This parish comprises both Offaly and Tipperary Counties. There he married MARGARET CASEY. She was born approximately 1797. They had six children, all born in Ireland: John Jr., b. 1825, James (my gr gr grandfather) b. 1825, Eliza, b. 1827, Mary, b. 1828, Patrick, b. 1827 and Daniel b. 1832.

In 1846, during the “potato famine”, John, Mary and the family immigrated to Canada. During my research of St. Columban I discovered that there were Casey family members farming in the area. It is quite likely that they were related to Margaret. Thanks to St. Columban historian, Claude Bourguignon, I recently discovered that on August 15th, 1829, LAWRENCE DELANEY, a farmer from Lac des Deux Montagnes, purchased lot #132 in St. Columban from Patrick Brennen. So we see that the Delaneys were one of the earlier settlers. It appears that Lawrence and his wife BRIDGIT INNES lived on this farm which consisted of a log house and a barn until it was sold June 20th, 1848 to Francis Donaghue. By that time Lawrence Delaney had passed away and Bridgit had remarried to William Murchison of Glengarry. It is very likely that Lawrence was related to John, perhaps a brother. So we can see all of the connections that led my gr gr gr grandfather and his family to this area.

At this point I have been unable to discover their specific reasons for leaving Ireland, their method of travel nor their port of entry. I can only assume that they arrived at the Grosse Isle quarantine station to be examined and processed. From there they probably travelled to Montreal where in all likelihood they stayed for a while to get their bearings and possibly earn some money before moving on.

The first record that I located was that of the marriage of James Delaney to Bridgit Kelly of St. Columban, October 28th, 1851. This also showed that John and Margaret belonged to St. Andrew’s parish.

I soon discovered that St. Andrew’s was in fact St. Andre’s, a French parish near Carillon. The 1851 census for that area listed John, Margaret and their sons Patrick and Daniel living in the village of St Andre. The three men were listed as blacksmiths.

It would appear that there were many Irish in this area. Obviously, by this time all of the farmland in St. Columban that had been made available for the new Irish immigrants by the Sulpicians under the influence of Bishop Phelan had been allotted. As a result many of these people migrated throughout Deux Montagnes, Terrebonne, Argenteuil and other counties. In St. Andre we see many of the same family names as in St. Columban: Brophy, Funchion, Fitzgerald, Kenna, Casey, etc. These are also common names in Offaly and Tipperary Counties in Ireland.

Argenteuil would have been especially interesting for these immigrants, as the land here was much more suitable for farming.

Not everyone could farm though and in that respect there were plenty of local projects where men could get decent paying, although somewhat dangerous jobs. There was a railway being built to Ottawa. A canal at Grenville was under construction. The Carrillon dam was being built. Lumbering was a big industry, both harvesting and processing. Manufacturing of various products was starting up across the area, especially in Lachute. As we can see it was a vibrant sphere of economic activity. I would assume that the Delaneys, being blacksmiths, would have been in great demand.

In the same census Eliza Delaney is shown with her husband John Fitzgerald and their children living on their farm in the area. On the next farm are the recently married James Delaney and his wife Bridget Kelly.

By 1858, John and Margaret were registered in church records as belonging to St. Columban's parish. In the census of 1861 they are living with Daniel, his wife and children. They would have been in their mid to late sixties. Some time after this John sr., Margaret, Daniel and his family must have left St. Columban, as there are no records of them in the census' of 1871, 1881 nor in 1891.

The census of 1881 does show John's son James, his wife Bridgit Kelly and their children living on their farm, which is situated on the Milles Isles side of St. Columban. There is no mention of John or Margaret. I have reviewed all the church records of both St Columban and St. Andre and there are no records of John's death nor of Margaret's death. They are not buried in the St. Columban cemetery nor in the St Andre cemetery.

Recent research has led me to believe that they may have moved to another St. Columban's parish, in Perth, Ontario. I have found a John Delaney and his wife Margaret Casey buried in the cemetery there. Also in the census' for the area we again see familiar names : Ryan, Brophy, Kenna etc.

SECOND GENERATION

(Children of John Delaney and Margaret Casey)

JOHN DELANEY JR. was born around 1825. Unfortunately I have not been able to confirm his birthdate nor am I 100% sure that he is actually John Sr.'s son. I cannot find any definitive record linking them although circumstantial evidence would indicate that he is. I do know that he came from Ireland on or before 1844 at the age of nineteen or twenty. Perhaps it is he who immigrated first and the rest of the family followed. I also know that he was a blacksmith like John sr.

He married MARY BROPHY in St. Andre's on June 2nd, 1844. She was the daughter of William Brophy deceased and Margeret Berrigan. These people were family friends of the Delaneys. In the census of 1851 John Jr. and Mary are living in St. Andre's with their children Michael age seven, John age five and Margaret age 3. Shortly after this time Mary died.

On January 1st, 1854 John married for the second time. His bride was MARGARET MCDONALD, the under age daughter of Patrick Mcdonald, deceased, and Mary Kane, also deceased, of the village of St. Andre. The witnesses were Rose Mcdonald, Leon Poitras and John's brother Patrick. On October 20th, 1854 they had a son James. He was baptised November 16. The sponsors were Leon Bertrand and Mary Flannegan.

JAMES DELANEY, my gr. gr. grandfather was born September 10th, 1825 in Dunkerrin, Offaly/Tipperary County, Ireland. He arrived in Canada around 1846 along with his family.

In the census of 1851 James is living by himself on a small farm in St. Andre.

On October 10th, 1851 he married BRIDGIT KELLY, daughter of Patrick Kelly and Catherine Healy of St. Columban. Fr. Falvey was the priest and the sponsors were John Delaney and Robert Charles Donovan. Together James and Bridget had nine children. The first six were born on the farm in St. Andre, Mary b. 1852, James Jr. b. 1853, Catherine b. 1856, Margaret b. 1857, Bridget b. 1860, Ellen b. 1862; and the others in St. Columban, Ann b. 1864, Patrick Daniel b. 1867 and John b. 1871.

In the census of 1861, James, Bridget and their four children are living on their farm in St Andre, in a one-story log cabin. Although it is a small farm it appears that James was a very hard worker and he made it successful. The following is a list of their assets according to the agricultural census:

20 acres - 18 cultivated
14 acres in crops
4 acres in pasture
2 acres wooded cash value of farm $ 400.00
cash value of equipment $ 10.00

8 acres of oats
50 bushels
1 acre of buckwheat
10 bushels
1 acre of potatoes
10 bushels
6 bushels carrots
2 tons of hay

2 heifers
2 milking cows
1 horse over 3 years
value $ 20.00
1 pig

total value of livestock $ 55.00

90 lbs. of butter
1½ barrels of pork

Sometime after Ellen's birth James sold his farm in St. Andre. On May 2nd, 1863, before notary Augustus Mackay (#7046) he purchased land in St. Columban from James Blanchfield. There were no buildings on the site. This land was located on the Mille Isle side of St. Columban. I visited the exact location of the farm. It is situated on Fortier Street just off of Cote St. Nicholas. It is hilly and rocky terrain and much of it has reverted back to forest. There are some homes there and at the end of the road there is a small lake, quite picturesque. It is hard to imagine that this was once a successful farm. I also noted that on the day of my visit, it was warm, with a slight breeze, quite pleasant. When I got home, to my surprise my neck was covered with black fly bites. This was after only a few moments outside of the car. I can't imagine the hardships that these settlers endured.

The census of 1871 shows James, his wife Bridget and seven of his children; Mary age 19, James Jr. age 18, Catherine age 15, Margaret age 14, Ellen age 8, Ann age 5 and Patrick age 4. Missing is Bridget who would have been 11 years old. I don't have any other record of her so I wonder if she may have died. The census shows the farm consisting of 90 acres of land, one house, one barn and one plough. The following is a list of his assets according to the agricultural census:

32 acres improved
¼ acre in garden and orchard

400 bushels of oats
15 bushels buckwheat
10 bushels corn

5 acres of potatoes
700 bushels potatoes

100 bushels turnips

25 acres of hay
40 tons or bundles of hay

200 lbs. of maple sugar

1 milking cow
1 horned cattle
3 sheep
1 swine

45 lbs. butter
7 lbs of wool
9 yds. home made cloth and flannel
7 cord of tan bark
15 cord firewood

In the census of 1881 James, Bridget and their children Ann age 15, Patrick age 14 and John age 12, are still living on the farm. I could not locate the agricultural census.

In 1891 the census shows James age 68 and Bridget age 60 still on the farm, along with Patrick age 22 and John age 20. Also Ellen, age 26 and Ann age 24 had returned home. The census also shows that one out of three buildings on the farm are occupied. Interestingly it also shows that all of them could read and write except Bridget.

The census of 1901 shows James, born September 10th, 1825 in Ireland (arriving in Canada 1846) age 75 years, Bridget, born October 7th, 1827 age 71 years and son John born August 12th, 1870 age 30 years living on the farm. It also shows Harry Hanlow born Nov 2nd, 1892 age 8 years and Eddie Hanlow born December 1st, 1887 age 13 years living with them. They are the children of Catherine Delaney Anlow and John Anlow.

Catherine died December 31st, 1895. After her husband John remarried it is possible that the children went to live with their grandparents.

Later we see that Eddie Enlow was the godfather to John James, the first son of John Delaney and Bridget Williams, who was born in 1907.

On March 24, 1901 the title to the farm was transferred to John Delaney. the paperwork was done by notary Ernest Petit, register # 23886. At the time John also had a residence at 517 Casgrain in Montreal.

On July 15th, 1908 John sold the farm to Fannie Poster and Simon Galendy, register # 27491, for $750.00. Notary fees and expenses were $250.00

James Delaney died February 1st, 1902 and was buried in the St. Columban cemetery. The witnesses were Thomas Williams, James Alfred Cahill and many others.

Bridget Kelly died in Montreal and was buried in St. Columban's June 10th, 1914 at the age of ninety.

MARY DELANEY was born in Ireland about 1828. She married JOHN MCLAUGHLIN who was a farmer from St. Columban. As usual Fr. Falvey performed the ceremony.

In 1849 they had their first child, Michael. Margaret was born in 1851. Elizabeth was born February 27th, 1854 and the sponsors were Patrick Phelan and Mary Mclaughlin. On August 13th, 1855 John Jr. was born. He was baptized the same day. The sponsors were John Funchion and Jane Rourke. David was born in 1857 and finally Patrick in 1860. According to the census of 1861 they lived in a one-story log house on their farm in St. Columban (film #c1327 line 40).

ELIZA DELANEY was born in Ireland around 1829. On July 18, 1848 she married JOHN FITZGERALD a farmer in St. Andre's parish. He was born in county Claire, Ireland about 1824. He was the son of John Sr. and Ann Monhihan.

In the census of 1851 they are living on their farm with their two children, Eliza, age 3 and James age 1. James was baptized February 4th, 1851 and the sponsors were Thomas Funchion and Margaret Karry. On November 28th, 1852 John jr. was baptized and the sponsors were Daniel Delaney, and Catherine Fitzgerald. Margaret was born April 16th, 1854. The sponsors were John Brophy and Martha Mccafferty. Edward was born June 15th, 1856, and baptized November 11th. The sponsors were James Delaney and Bridget Kelly.

In the census of 1861 they were still living on their farm with their five children. The following details were taken from the agricultural census of that year:

70 acres total
34 acres cultivated
24 acres under crops
10 acres pasture
36 acres wooded
cash value of farm $400.00
cash value of equipment $ 100.00

2 acres of peas
15 bushels

15 acres of oats
215 bushels

4 acres buckwheat
16 bushels

½ acre potatoes
100 bushels

100 bushels carrots

4 tons of hay

2 heifers
3 milking cows
2 horses over 3 years
value $ 80.00
3 sheep
1 pig

total value livestock $631.00

300lbs. butter
2 ½ barrels pork

On April 18th, 1865 John's brother, Thomas died at age 62 and was buried in St. Andre's cemetery.

On June 10th, 1879 James married Joanna O'Connor, daughter of Moses and Johanna Walker of St. Andre's parish.

On June 18th, 1880 Edward married Mary Helen Baron daughter of Joseph Baron and Mary Blume of St. Joachim.

On September 6th, 1881 John Jr. married Martha Dickson of St. Philippe. Her parents were William Dickson and Jane Callahan of St. Joachim.

By 1881 John and Eliza are living with their son John Jr. on their farm in Chatham, Argenteuil County.

John Fitzgerald died May 6th, 1894 at the age of 69. His wife Elizabeth Delaney died January 29th, 1896 at the age of 67. The church record shows her originating from County Tipperary, Ireland. They are buried in St. Andre cemetery range 12.

Their friend John Brophy passed away November 11th, 1909 age 78 and his wife Mary Blanchfield died March 5th, 1913 age 78. They are also buried in St. Andre's.

PATRICK DELANEY was born in Ireland about 1832. He came to Canada with his family and in 1851 he was living with his parents and brother Daniel in St Andre's parish. He was listed as a blacksmith.

On January 1st, 1854 he was a witness to his brother John's marriage to Margaret Mcdonald.

Tragically 4 months later he died and was buried in the St. Andre cemetery. The witnesses were Thomas Fitzgerald and Michael Thomey, the priest was Cure Thibaudier.

DANIEL DELANEY was also born in Ireland, about 1836. He came to Canada with his family. In the census of 1851 he was living with his parents and brother Patrick in the villiage of S. Andre. He was listed as a blacksmith.

On November 11th, 1852 Daniel along with Catherine Fitzgerald were sponsors at the baptism of John Fitzgerald Jr., the son of John Sr. and Eliza Delaney.

On August 3rd, 1853 Daniel was a sponsor at the baptism of Patrick, son of John Funchion and Mary Mclaughlin.

Sometime in the mid to late 1850's Daniel moved with his parents to St. Columban, where he had a house and a small property of one acre where he could grow vegetables for his own consumption. It was located along with the blacksmith shop at the crossroads behind where today stands the hotel.

On June 28th, 1858 he married ELONORA (HONORA) RYAN, the underage daughter of Patrick Ryan, deceased, and Judith Keyes. The witnesses were William Hart and Joseph Phelan. The priest was Fr. Falvey.

Together Daniel and Elonora had four children while living in St. Columban. Elizabeth was born March 22nd, 1859 and was baptized the same day by Fr. Falvey. The sponsors were Michael Phelan and Bridget Ryan. Sadly 10 months later Elizabeth died of measles and was buried February 24th in the St. Columban cemetery. Present were John Delaney and John Trunchion.

On October 24th, 1858 Daniel, along with Marian Hart were sponsors at the baptism of Bridget Kelly, the daughter of Timothy Kelly and Mary Keyes. The father was unable to attend the ceremony.

Patrick was born Jan. 1st, 1860 and baptized Jan. 2nd at St. Columban's. The sponsors were Andrew Keyes and Mary Delaney. I believe that much later in life Patrick moved to Montreal and is buried in the Cote des Neiges cemetery. That is still to be verified.

The census of 1861 shows Daniel living with his wife Honora, age 24, Margaret, age 12, whom I believe is the daughter of John Delaney Jr. and Mary Brophy, son Patrick, age 1 and Daniel's parents, John age 67 and Margaret age 64. The census also shows them living in a one-story log house on one acre of land. They had one cow, one sheep, one pig and one carriage for hire.

John Jack Delaney was born Dec. 18th, 1862. The sponsors were Michael Phelan, and Jane Rourke. John left St. Columban with his family around 1866. He died in Decorah, Winnesiciek, Iowa, date unknown.

Andrew Delaney was born April 22nd, 1865. The sponsors were James Ryan and Ellen Burke. He also left St. Columban around 1866. He ended up in Otter Creek, Iowa where he married Elizabeth Mcdermott. They had eleven children. Andrew died June 18th, 1935 in Bernard, Dubuque, Iowa.

Daniel and his family along with his parents, John Sr. and Margaret Casey left St. Columban some time after 1866. I believe they first went to St. Columban parish in Perth, Ontario. John and Margaret stayed there while Daniel and his family moved on to Dubuque and then Otter Creek, Iowa.

There Daniel and Eleanora (shown in the census as Ann) had four more children: James b. 1868, d. ? in Michigan; Mary b. June, 1870; Michael b. 1872 d. ? Michigan and Daniel b. 1873 d. ? Paris, Davis, Iowa.

In 1873 Eleanora (Ann) died, possibly in childbirth.

On May 15th, 1873 in Jackson, Iowa Daniel remarried to CATHERINE CLIFFORD.

She was born about 1852 in Illinois. Together they had nine children all born in Jackson: Margaret b. 1874, Mary b. 1876, unknown, Johannah b. 1880, Ellen b. 1882, Michael b. 1885, William b. 1885, Harry b. 1892 and Christopher b. 1895

THIRD GENERATION

(Children of James Delaney and Bridgit Kelly)

MARY DELANEY was born August 18th, 1852 and baptized August 20th in St. Andre. The sponsors were John Brophy and Marianne Cormier.

Later in life she married JAMES GLEASON. (his brother John was married to Margaret Neil) the date was April 4th, 1879 and it took place in St. Patrick's church in Montreal. James parents were Edward Gleason and Catherine Herbert. I believe that Mary and James had three children, John 1886-1941, Dolly 1888-1956 and George, birth date unknown. George was my father Donald Neil's godfather. Mary died July 2nd, 1923 and is buried in the Gleason family plot in the Cotes des Nieges cemetery, section m, lot # 01469.

JAMES DELANEY JR. was born and baptized on November 13th, 1853. The sponsors were John Fitzgerald and Eliza Delaney. Later James Jr. moved to Montreal where, on April 27th, 1880 he married ELIZABETH TEES, the underage daughter of John Tees and Ann Harrison.

On January 1st, 1891 Ellen Delaney was born. She was baptized January 11th. The godparents were Patrick Delaney and Ellen Delaney, aunt. Mary Lorette was born on August 3rd, 1893. She was baptized on August 6th, in St Patrick's church. The godmother was Rose McGraham. On June 18th, 1899 John Delaney was born. He was baptized June 25th. The sponsors were John Gleason, waiter and Matilda Delaney, waitress.

CATHERINE DELANEY was born February 5th, 1856 and baptized February 11th in St. Andre's. The sponsors were Patrick Curran and Roseann Curran. Cure Thibaudier was the priest. Later in life she moved to Montreal and married JOHN ANLOW, a horseman, in St. Patrick's church. The date was May 8th, 1876. John's parents were John Sr. and Emilia Magir. On September 6th, 1884 their daughter Mary Gertrude was born. She was baptized in St. Patrick's on September 14th. The godfather was Patrick McLaughlin, of St. Patrick's and Bridget Kelly Delaney of St. Columban.

On December 1st, 1887 their son Edward was born. Their second son Harold was born November 2nd, 1892.

On December 13th, 1895, at the age of 39, Catherine died in Montreal. On January 3rd, 1896 she was buried in the St. Columban cemetery. Present were her husband John and her brothers Patrick and John.

John Enlow later remarried to Azelda Gagnon. They had a son John Edward born August 13th, 1904 and a second son, Stephen Gerald on February 21st, 1908.

MARGARET DELANEY, my gr. grandmother, was born November 26th, 1857 and baptized January 26th, 1858 in St. Andre's parish. The sponsors were John Brophy, and Roseann Curran. She married GEORGE NEIL in approximately 1883. George's family came from Londonderry, Ireland and were Anglican.

They lived in the St. Lawrence ward area of Montreal where they owned a grocery store. Together they had eleven children: William Hebert b. 1884, George James b. 1886, Margaret b. 1888, Caroline b. 1890, Frederick (my grandfather) b. 1891, Ann Jane b. 1892, Herman Herbert b. 1893, Pearl Ellen b.1895, James Herbert b.1898, Maud Elizabeth b. 1900 and Mabel b. 1902. All the children were brought up Catholic. Margaret instilled in her children their sense of Irishness and their St. Columban roots. Many of her children married into families that came from St. Columban. I also think that she was the pivotal cog that kept the Neils and the Delaneys together and we see Neils as godparents to the various Delaneys and vice versa.

Margaret died January 10th, 1928 and is buried in the Neil family plot in Cotes des Neiges cemetery, section ga, lot 00891.

BRIDGET DELANEY was born April 9th, 1860. I don't have any other record of her. She does not appear in the 1861 census, so it may be that she died sometime during her first year of life. We do know that around that time there was an epidemic of scarlet fever.

ELLEN (HELEN) DELANEY was born January 7th, 1862 and was baptized January 17th. The sponsors were Daniel Delaney and Margaret Delaney.

On August 17th, 1891 in St. Patrick's church, she married STEPHEN WILLIAM MCISAAC. His parents were Stephen Sr. and Mary Ellen Valentine. Helen died September 1st, 1931 and her husband died August 26th, 1911. They are both buried in the C.D.N. cemetery lot #02454 section n. Buried in the same plot is Florence Mary Enlow who died November 11th, 1950.

ANN DELANEY was born August 28th, 1864 and was baptized the next day in St. Columban's. The sponsors were Patrick Kelly and Margaret Keegan. On June 15th, 1896 she married JAMES HEALEY, son of John Healey, deceased, and Mary Ryan. The witnesses were Mary Gleason and Mary O'Connor. No other information is available.

PATRICK DANIEL DELANEY was born May 2nd, 1867 in St Columban. He was baptized May 3. The sponsors were Patrick O'Leary and Catherine W. Canna.

Later he moved to Montreal where he was married to MARY ELLEN FLYNN in St. Patrick's church on August 31st, 1896. She was the daughter of Edmund Flynn and Bridget McCarthy. The witnesses were Thomas Murphy and Honora Delaney of St. Mary's. They had at least three children that I can confirm. Bridget Magdelan Irene was born March 11th, 1899 and baptized March 19th. The sponsors were Patrick Delaney and Catherine Delaney. Bridget died October 27th, 1950.

On August 20th, 1900 Ellen Gertrude was born. The godparents were Mary Delaney Gleason and James Gleason.

There may have been two other children, Gordon Frederick Joseph and Mary. I have yet to confirm this.

James Edmund Timothy was baptized in St Michael's church on September 16th 1906. The sponsors were Stephen William McIsaac and Ellen Delaney. (later Ellen and Stephen were to marry)

Patrick died November 11th, 1943 and is buried in the Cotes des Neiges cemetery, section b, lot # 02918.

JOHN DELANEY was born Dec. 1st, 1871 and was baptized Dec. 3rd. His sponsors were Patrick Kelly and Catherine W. Canna.

On April 4th, 1906 he married BRIDGET WILLIAMS, daughter of Thomas Williams and Brigit McKeven, in St. Columban. The witnesses were Michael Williams and Lilly Casey.

On March 29th, 1907 John James Delaney was born. He was baptized on March 31st, in St. Michael's church. The sponsors were Jennie Neil and Eddie Enlow. The priest was James McCrory. On April 15th, 1909, Daniel Thomas Douglas was born. He was baptized on April 25th. The sponsors were Michael Mullins and Lilian Oats. The third son Francis Harold Joseph was born on December 22nd, 1912.

John died in 1935. His wife Bridget died April 30th, 1943. They are buried along with their son Francis in the Cotes des Neiges cemetery section ga, lot # 01678.

SIXTH GENERATION

(Children of Donald Neil and Irene Wells)

They include myself Ken, my sisters Karen and Donna and my brother Dereck.

Keep in mind that the above history is an on going project. From the fifth generation down I concentrated on the Neil/Delaney connection. I would love to expand upon and include the later Delaney history. If you have any information, comments, changes, corrections, additions or perhaps photos, I would love to hear from you. My e-mail address is: kenneth.neil@sympatico.ca

One note, on early records, including the ones I found in Ireland, the family name is spelt Delany. Later records, including the inscription on my gr grandmother's headstone, it is spelt Delaney.

Enjoy
